13:00 – 15:00 LUNCH BREAK

15:00 – 16:45 PANEL 2: ECOLOGICAL ECONOMICS TO PROTECT BIODIVERSITY IN HARMONY WITH NATURE

The values advanced by ecological economics and Earth-centered law, such as fairness, equity, justice, cooperation, dialogue, inclusion, comprehension, agreement, respect, and mutual inspiration complement each other in the journey to move beyond the Anthropocene epoch. Earth-centered approaches calls on humanity to listen to, take inspiration from, and care for the Planet that sustains us, and recognize that Nature is, and should be, a source of law, ethics and how we govern ourselves.
